

Bogotà

Massimiliano Raggi

SMALL

LARGE

A light element that is fluid, like an object thrown upwards and which remains suspended. The idea of lightness is expressed, using a material that declares its contemporaneity, and which fits into our interiors with decisiveness and elegance. The luminous part, covered in Viennese straw set within a black lacquered oval, has a vintage yet very modern flavour – a style that reminds us of Brazilian and South American modernist interiors of the 1960s and 70s. The version with the central section covered in marble-print fabric is more striking, but always distinctive and current. Also available in white cotton shade. Bogotà is a round, soft-sounding name that perfectly represents this lamp.
