SO

A decisive statement.

A light-bar that is as thin as a blade, as sharp as a cut. Fly is a flexible lamp that can be used in several rooms of the house, or in the contract and hospitality sector. When used with the upper or front textile diffuser in the wall version, it becomes a piece of furniture – almost a luminous sculpture, especially when it is repeated, or combined in different ways. The lamp's versatility and its modernity are evident, with a wide range of applications.
